LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Some things are simply too good to wait for the next catalog.

If you're holding this catalog, congratulations, you've stumbled upon the beauty industry's version of finding a twenty in your winter coat. Some things are just too good to keep waiting for the next bi-monthly catalog. Between exciting new launches, limited-time deals, and products we couldn't squeeze into the last edition (turns out pages have feelings too), we figured they deserved a spotlight of their own.

Inside, you'll find fresh finds, exclusive offers, and a few reasons to make your next order just a little bit bigger than you originally planned. (We won't tell your inventory budget if you don't.)

As always, we're here to help you discover products your clients will love, keep your shelves looking fresh, and maybe even make your day a little brighter along the way. Happy browsing, and remember, the best deals have a funny habit of disappearing before "I'll order it later" becomes "I should've ordered it."

WHAT IT IS

Lightweight serum is clinically proven to deliver up to 19,000 more hairs, 70% show fewer grays, plus an improved scalp barrier.

WHY IT WORKS

Powered by proprietary MultiVital™, a precision-engineered system that works synergistically across multiple pathways to reverse graying, reduce shedding, and protect scalp longevity.

HOW TO USE

USE ONCE NIGHTLY. Apply 4 droppers, filled to the line, directly to damp or dry scalp. Distribute evenly and massage in.

DO NOT RINSE.
